

CEDHE Forum

Innovating Environmental Science Education: sharing a vision for optimism, evidence, and skills

Thursday 23rd May 2024 | 10am-3.15pm (BST) | Online

09:30 CEDHE AGM – all CEDHE members welcome

10:00 Welcome – Prof. Liz Price, Chair of CEDHE, Deputy Pro-Vice-Chancellor Sustainability, Manchester Metropolitan University

10:10 IES Vision Statement – Ethny Childs, IES Communities and Partnerships Lead

10:30 Strengthening Skills for Sustainability

Provocation by Gary Kass, Visiting Professor at the Centre for Environment and Sustainability, University of Surrey

Strengthening skills for sustainability breakout discussions and feedback facilitated by the CEDHE Committee

11:15 Curriculum design and Education for Sustainable Development in Practice supported by the CoDesignS ESD Framework and Toolkit – Dr D. Theresa Nicholson, Reader (Higher Education and Pedagogy) Manchester Metropolitan University

11:35 – Break

12:00 Climate Anxiety and Optimism

Provocation by IES Student Ambassadors

Addressing climate anxiety and optimism breakout discussions facilitated by the CEDHE Committee

12:45 Climate Anxiety and Optimism

Presentation

13:05 – Break for lunch

13:50 Communicating Environmental Science

Provocation

Communicating Environmental Science breakout discussions facilitated by the CEDHE Committee

14:35 How do students respond to ‘creative’ science communication assessments? Reflections from an undergraduate science communication module at the University of Plymouth – Dr Simon Dickinson, Lecturer in Geohazards and Risk, University of Plymouth

15:00 Next steps and closing remarks – Prof. Liz Price, Chair of CEDHE, Deputy Pro-Vice Chancellor Sustainability, Manchester Metropolitan University

15:15 Forum close

Prior to the forum, CEDHE will hold their AGM at 09:30-10:00am
All CEDHE Members are welcome to attend the AGM.