

CEDHE Forum

Skills for Net Zero – what employers want

Thursday 25th May 2023 | 11am to 3pm (GMT) | Online

10:00 CEDHE AGM – all CEDHE members welcome

11:00 Welcome – Liz Price, Chair of CEDHE, Deputy Pro-Vice-Chancellor Sustainability, Manchester Metropolitan University

11:05 Review of skills for net zero – Adam Donnan, Chief Executive of IES

11:20 What net zero skills do employers want in an Environmental Science graduate?

Panellists include Gary Kass, Principal Specialist at Natural England, Dr Emma Wilcox, Chief Executive of SocEnv and Beth Richards, Sustainability Education Officer at Change Agents, chaired by Liz Price, Chair of CEDHE, with questions from IES Student Ambassadors

11.55 Linking with employers to inform programme design – Michael Horswell, Senior Lecturer, Nevil Quinn, Professor in Applied Hydrology both from University of West of England, Jean-Louis Bartlett and Hollie Price, Arcadis

12:30 - Break for Lunch

13:00 What, how and where are net zero skills embedded within programmes – Breakout rooms facilitated by CEDHE committee.

14:00 Carbon Auditing and real-world assessment – Dr Rachel Dunk Principal Lecturer and Christopher Paling Senior Lecturer, both at Manchester Metropolitan University

14:45 Closing remarks - Prof. Liz Price, Chair of CEDHE, Deputy Pro-Vice-Chancellor Sustainability, Manchester Metropolitan University

15:00 Forum close

*Prior to the forum, CEDHE will hold their AGM at 10:00 – 11.00am
All CEDHE Members are welcome to attend the AGM.*